Sub: F1 Reinstatement Request

Dear U.S. Department of Homeland Security Official,

I hope you will approve my F-1 Reinstatement Petition. I studied ESL as an F-1 student at Poly Languages Institute since July 2016. Then I got into Pasadena City College to major in Art. Even though I tried hard to catch up, I should have dropped out after 1 year.

I really love Art; my goal is become an artist in my country Korea like my mother did after learning Art in the United State of America. However, transferring to PCC without sufficient preparation eventually created a problem. I could not understand the class with my poor English skills. I was frustrated, and at the end I lost all motivation, so I was not able to attend classes properly. So I wanted to transfer back to POLY, but my SEVIS record was terminated.

As an F-1 student, I learned the greatest one in my life because of my failure at PCC. I realized that I could not achieve my goals if I'm not close to being a native English speaker, so I came back to the POLY Languages Institute. I would like to learn English again at Poly Languages Institute to reach my dream.

My mother, who understands my failure, will give me all the financial help I need, and I will return to Korea after my studies.

Once again, please provide me with the opportunity to study English and Art by accepting my petition. Your decision will greatly help my life. I really want to achieve my goal. I really appreciate your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Officer,

I came to the US for tourism in July, and decided to stay here for a bit long time to study hands on English. Therefore, I would like to change my B2 visa status to F-1 status.

I got a master degree in English 10 years ago. After graduation, I have been working in consulting firms and multinational companies for several years. I am now working in a Chinese Company doing business consulting for international companies who have business in China. However, I found that my English skills is not enough for me to be a higher executive and lead the company to a higher development platform. So, I decided to go for a further study here in language school so that I can master native English and understand more US culture in order to equip myself to get a better career development and personal life. My company will retain the position for me, and all the tuition fees and living cost will afforded by myself.

Please find my I-539, I-20, I-94, and supporting materials attached. My address in California will be [REDACTED]. Also my email is [REDACTED]

Your assistance and prompt attention would be very appreciated in this matter.

Sincerely,

Sub: B2 Status Extension Request

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am enclosing the application and documents herewith for the extension of my stay in the U.S.A on a B1/B2 visa. Current my authorized stay is till January 30, 2019, but I would like to extend my stay in the USA till July 30, 2019.

I was working so hard as a lawyer and a director of two companies in Brazil for 10 years. I have spent all my energy in those decades and I am exhausted. I came to the U.S.A to recover my mind and health. When I was young, I had dream that was to be a photographer and travel all around the world, But I couldn't achieve my dream because I tried to be a lawyer and worked as a director of the company.

I came back to the United States again and fell in love with beautiful environment of North America. And my dreams came to mind again. I am now traveling at western cities and west coast cities, but I want to explore inland cities and eastern cities. I want to meet as many people as possible, and I want to put American nature in my camera. I think now is the perfect moment for me to take a break and to achieve my dream.

I have a job as a lawyer and a company director also have my own house in Brazil. I have been talking with my business partner in Brazil regarding my break. They supported my decision and they will wait me after my traveling in the U.S.A. I will put all my heart to the future business in Brazil after my travel in the U.S.A

I have enclosed Form I-539, my bank statements and other supporting documents.

Thank you for reading my letter and your prompt attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Re: Change of Status

Dear Sir/ Madam,

I am writing to request for a change of status from a B2 visa to an F1 visa because I have recently graduated from De La Salle College of Saint Benilde (DLS-CSB) in 2018 and took the time to relax and travel the world and to see different places. Now, to further my knowledge even more I would like to apply for the F-1 visa for me to study for my Master's Degree in Cal State Diego in Hospitality Management, the reason being is so that when I go back home I have an advantage when applying for a job because I will then be able to apply more techniques that not many of people have.

Another reason why I want to study in the United States is because this country is known to have one of the best educational systems, if given a chance to get my Master's degree in the US it will be open a lot more opportunities for me and better positions back home. The main point is so that I have divers knowledge from different parts of the world that I can apply to my work and become better at what I do in the future.

During this change of status process, I will be staying at my residence at [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Please find the following documents enclosed:

- Copies of Form I-94
- Copy of passport
- Proof of financial support from my mother Deborah Riesgo
- I-20 Form
- I- 539 Form
- Acceptance Letter from POLY Languages Institute

Thank you for you kind consideration.

Dear Department of Homeland Security Official,

My name is [REDACTED]. I'm citizen of Russia. I live in Moscow, Russia and I've been staying in the United States of America, in Los Angeles California for 5 months as a B2 visa holder.

A little about myself, I currently work remotely as a Social Media Specialist, while utilizing my online knowledge and russian language. Due to my current job requirements, i do need to improve my english inorder to be more competitive in this field that i love and work in.

Once my English skills are better, I would like to go back to school and get a degree from a reputable university speciliazed in Social Media and Marketing.

Since English is the universal language around the world and American English is the most common and most spoken language i ask you to give me this opportunity to learn it and improve my language skill set.

I ask you to review and approve my application "change of my status", so I can take English courses and improve my English skills which will open new doors in my work field and future career.

I have attached I-539 form, copy of passport, my visa section, forms I-94, I-20, I-901, Acceptance letter, A Bank Statement.

Thank you for reading my letter and I'm looking forward to the approval.

I thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear Department of Homeland Security Official,

My name is [REDACTED]. I'm a citizen of Mongolia. I live in Ulaanbaatar and I've been staying in the United States of America, in Los Angeles California for 5 months as a b1-b2 visa holder.

A little bit about myself, I am a circus artist. My parents were circus performances, so when I was 5 years old, I started to train at the Mongolian State Circus as a contortionist. I've traveled all over the world as an artist and performer for most of my life, so I haven't had much time to study.

Now I am taking a break from my career because I'd like to travel and work with other amazing circus artists. Since English is the universal language around the world, most of fellow performers also speak English. I'd like to learn English as perfect as my first language, so I can communicate with my fellow co-workers and other artists.

I want to travel the world again as a performer and an artist, so I need English in order to make my career succeed.

I came to the U.S. for tourist purposes. Specifically for traveling to see the U.S. and experiencing U.S. culture so I can better understand American entertainment and performance culture and English speaking culture in general. Specifically I wanted to see how Cirque De Soleil works in Las Vegas and throughout the U.S., as they are the most famous circus in the world. But after 5 months of traveling around the U.S., I decided that I needed to improve my English abilities to work with my dream of performing globally for audiences around the world.

This is why I want to change my status, so I can take English courses to improve my English skills so I can finally study and be able to communicate with co-workers and audiences alike. I also want to start and complete my education quickly so I can get back out on the road and perform. I can do this dream if I can improve my English in the U.S.

I have attached I-539 form, copy of passport, visa section, I-94, I-20, Acceptance Letter, Bank Statement. Thank you for reading my letter and I am looking forward to the approval.

I thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear Department of Homeland Security Official,

My name is [REDACTED]. I'm a citizen of Argentina. I live in Buenos Aires and I've been staying in the United States of America, in Los Angeles California for 1 month as a b1-b2 visa holder.

I am an actress. When i was young i used to see a lot of movies and since then, i felt in love on how people can empathize with any character transforming them self in something beautiful that always has a message to convey to the public.

Im in a moment of my career where i would like to expand my knowledge and to keep enriching me as an actress with more skills. Since English is the universal language around the world, as an actress, knowing how to speak in English is a really good skill. I'd like to learn English as perfect as my first language, so I can communicate and interpret any character with no problems.

I want to be a complete actress so that if i am asked to speak in other language, i can be able to do that. So I need English in order to make my career succeed.

I came to the U.S. for tourist purposes. I wanted to travel the country so i could experienced the U.S. culture. Also i really wanted to know the iconic places and so i can understand better the american entertainment. Specifically I wanted to take advantage of all the artistic activities that Los Angeles gives you, such as director talks, seeing more shows, and discovering new skills. But after 1 month of traveling around the U.S., I decided that I need to improve my English abilities to work with my dream of performing globally for audiences around the world.

This is why I want to change my status, so I can take English courses to improve my English skills so I can finally study and be able to communicate with co-workers and interpret any character with no limits. I also want to start and complete my education quickly so I can get back back to my career as an actress in Argentina and Latin America. I can do this dream if I can improve my English in the U.S.

I have attached I-539 form, copy of passport, visa section, I-94, I-20, Acceptance Letter, Bank Statement. Thank you for reading my letter and I am looking forward to the approval. I thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear Department of Homeland Security Official,

Hello, my name is [REDACTED]. I am a Brazilian citizen, passport number YE035240 and my current status is that of an R-1, Religious worker Visa. I very respectfully request to change of my status in order to study ESL at POLY Languages Institute in Los Angeles

I came to the U.S. as a religious worker for the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Brazil at the Georgia Cumberland Conference, an affiliate of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. I was a visiting missionary for a church in Georgia. I have been doing this for two years. This was a great experience, however I realized that If I wanted to grow my ministry and my own ministerial skills, I need to be better able to speak to church goers in English and not in my native language of Portuguese.

I've enrolled for one-year program of ESL at POLY Languages and I want to improve my Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing Skills. English is the most important language in my field and being able to properly use it when I get back to Brazil will improve my chances of succeeding even more and be better able to connect the teachings of The Lord with the people of the U.S. and people of my homeland.

This experience in the US is going to help me with my career as a minister since I am experiencing new things every day. It's going to be hard for me to have another chance to spend so much time in the US since I'm back home to my career in my country so I can deliver the word of our lord from my experience being and educate people in English in my native country.

I have attached I-539 form, a copy of my I-94, a copy of passport(s) (old and new), visa section and my Bank Statement. Thank you for reading my letter and I am looking forward to the approval.

I thank you for your consideration.

Dear U.S. Department of Homeland Security Official:

Hello. My name is [REDACTED]. I am a Chinese citizen from Shanghai. I have been in the United States for four months. About myself, I am a professional actress in China. For more than a decade, I've appeared in and starred in TV shows and commercials in China. I am currently visiting the U.S. and holding a B1/B2 visa and would like your permission to change my visa to F-1 student.

I entered the U.S. in a non-student status in the beginning of February. The original intended stay was approximately for 40 days. During this time I was here originally to study for roles in China that required some knowledge of the U.S. and U.S. culture. However my study for these roles was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Further, I realized that the best way to better prepare for these roles was to actually improve my English skills so I can better understand my parts and bring a level of authenticity to them in my career.

I was graduated in China Central Drama College for performing arts and am an actress in TV, Movies and TV commercial industries for more than a decade.

However as my career has improved in China, I think I will be able to get better roles and improve my career even further if I have some English skills. To improve my English level, I applied to Poly Languages Institute at Irvine subsequently and was admitted for ESL study. This is a big career risk I am taking, setting aside two years to study to improve my career. Once I complete my studies, I will return to China and be with my two daughters and use my new skills to improve my career.

As I intend to enroll full-time ESL classes in 2020, I do not wish to leave the U.S. at the present time to get a new VISA, so I am changing my status under the circumstances that I would suffer the following hardship(s): The flights to China are not available for coming months unless I take a charter flight that costs more than USD $40,000.- one way. Further I may not be allowed to even enter China due to the COVID outbreak. Finally, the high risk of travel these days is another reason why I would rather do the change of status process here in the US. .

Please find my I-539 application, I-20, I-94, and supporting materials attached herewith.

I appreciate your attention and look forward to your approval soon.

Sincerely yours,
